

Post-Master's Degree Au.D. Program

I. Basic Science Coursework (Select 2)

CSD 6650	Advanced Anat & Phys Hearing	3
CSD 7420	Psychoacoustics and Instrumentation	3
PHTH 7050	Neuroanatomy	5
CSD 6800	Temporal Bone Anat.	3
		<hr/>
		SUBTOTAL 6-8

II. Advanced Audiology Courses (Select 4)

CSD 7050	Medical & Physiologic Aspects	3
CSD 7850	Pediatric Audiology	3
CSD 7860	Vestibular Assessment and Rehab	3
CSD 7550	Advanced Seminar Amplification	3
CSD 7880	Advanced Electrophysiology	4
CSD 7640	Seminar Implantable Aud Prostheses	3
CSD 7740	Grand Rounds	3
CSD 7450	Advanced Aural Habilitation & Rehab.	3
		<hr/>
		SUBTOTAL 12-13

III. Electives (Select 2)

CSD 7840	Seminar in Audiology	3
CSD 7210	Professional Practice Aspects in Audiology	3
CSD 6320	Assessment of Child Language Disorders	3
CSD 6340	Language Disorders in Young Children	3
CSD 6800	Independent Study	3
CSD 6820	Special Topics	3
CSD 7350	Aphasia	3
CSD 7410	Cognitive-Communication Disorders	3
CSD 7830	Seminar – Speech Behavior	3
CSD 7370	Lang Differences in Multicultural Populations	3
		<hr/>
		SUBTOTAL 6

IV. Research*

CSD 7730	AuD Research Project	6
CSD 7930	Advanced Research Methods	3
		<hr/>
		SUBTOTAL 9

*Research Requirements:

A. If thesis and a research design or statistics course were completed within the past 10 years, the equivalent research category requirements are waived.

B. If a thesis was completed more than 10 years ago, the 6 credit research project will be replaced with the Research Methods course and a 3-credit research-based independent study.

C. If no thesis was completed as part of the Master's degree program, then category IV must be completed.

Traineeship requirements: Must be completed prior to entry to the program, with current state licensure or national audiology certification.

TOTAL SEMESTER CREDIT HOURS FOR PROGRAM: 25-35

Tuition: Department of Communication Sciences and Disorders tuition will be charged for the first 2 semesters “in residency”. After the 2 semesters of residency in the program are complete, then the differential tuition portion is waived, and tuition will be charged at the lower general graduate school rate. For current information on tuition, please refer to the University website at fbs.admin.utah.edu/index.php/income/

Applications: Please refer to the applications section of our department website at www.health.utah.edu/csd/degrees/aud/index.html